

Science

Evolution and Inheritance (continued):

- Characteristics that are inherited and variations that can occur
- How are animals adapted to live in their habitats and how do adaptations lead to evolution?
- What does the fossil record tell us?
- Why do animals and plants become extinct?
- The work of Charles Darwin on Evolution
- Evolution of hominids

Year 6 Summer Term

Looking Forward, Looking Back

Art

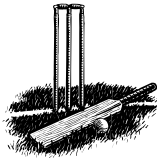

Inspired by the Stone Age to Iron Age theme

- Make reproductions of Cave Paintings
- Art inspired by the fossil record Graffiti Art

P.E

Children will take part in:

- Athletics
- Tennis
- Cricket
- Rounders
- Ultimate Frisbee
- Outdoor adventurous activities (PGL)

English

- Write stories with flashbacks
Developing narrative writing skills using the short animated film 'The Piano'.
- Develop their speaking and listening skills by taking part in a Year Group Production.
- Poetry performance for Leavers' assembly
- Present historical information about the Stone Age.

History

How has Britain changed from Stone Age to Iron Age?

- Develop chronological knowledge and understanding of British history (Stone Age to Iron Age).
- Use a range of sources to gain an understanding of British History.
- Make connections and contrasts between Stone Age, Iron Age and modern Britain (cave paintings, tools, food, homes).

ICT

We Are Publishers

- Develop skills using Microsoft Word to finish designing their Yearbook page.

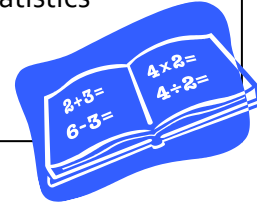

Mathematics

Consolidation of the skills studied during Key Stage 2 in preparation for SATs.

This will include:

- Fractions, decimals and percentages work
- 3D shapes, nets and angles
- Converting metric units of measure
- Data handling and statistics

R.E

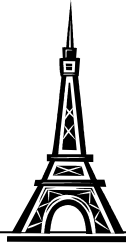

Human responsibility

- Taking responsibility for living together
- What is right and wrong, just and fair

Modern Foreign Languages

- Me In The World
- At School

PSHCE

- Independence and transitions
- Mindfulness and resilience
- Sex and relationships

MUSIC

- Learn and perform songs featured in the Year 6 Production.

Secondary Transfer Day

Thursday 14th July 2022