

Coronation- Over the last few days we have been weaving the upcoming Coronation into our curriculum and the school is suitably decorated linked to this National event.

Tomorrow, Friday 5th May, children and staff are encouraged to wear non-uniform in red, white and/or blue. Each child will be given a commemorative medal tomorrow to mark the Coronation. These are in a presentation case that should remain sealed. Thank you to the FHSA who kindly paid for the medals.

FHSA Fun Trail- The Friends are holding the Fun trail event tomorrow (linked to the Baldock Festival)- although an umbrella may be required! The trail will be Coronation themed and ice creams will optimistically be on sale for £1 each.

Pre-Loved Uniform will be on sale tomorrow from 3.00 pm in the outdoor classroom in front of the school. Items can be paid for in cash or by card. Thank you to those that have donated Hartsfield branded clothes.

Hartsfield 40th Anniversary T-Towels- Children are busy completing self-portraits of themselves (and the staff!) this week for inclusion in our T-Towels! We are awaiting online permission from a final few families to include their child so please complete it asap via Arbor.

Upcoming Assessments- Year 6 will complete formal end of key stage assessments each morning next week (SATs). The children will be in early for 'Toast Club' each day. Tests are marked externally and results will be available and shared with parents in mid-July. Year 2 end of key stage assessments will be informally completed before half term.

We complete regular informal assessments throughout the year with all year groups to inform teaching and assess progress. Broad achievement is shared at parents' evenings and also in the written end of year report to parents in July each year.

Trips- Year 4 classes will be off to Hudnall Park for a night next week. This term is action-packed with trips planned for each year group- highlights of the year for many.
